FROM WASHINGTON.

[From the correspondent of the Richmond Examiner.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.

There may be some question whether the President will veto the new freedmen's bill. He is opposed to the bill, as are many of the Republican presses, on the score of expediency; but whether he will exercise the veto power upon any ground lower than that of unconstitutionality, is doubtful. It is very hard to say what is constitutional in this transitive stage of the Government. Every member of Congress, every court, every military commander, and even the Executive Administration, has a ready pretext for any act, in the necessities arising from the war, and the more august necessities coming from the peace. The freedmen's bill is founded on a supposed necessity for the temporary relief of the freedmen, or for their future protection and education. The evils which it will entail on the country and upon the freedmen themselves are patent to every observer.—The President is opposed to the bill in all its parts, as he has said. As to the fifth section, giving possessory rights for three years to the negroes of the Sea Islands, the President, General Sherman and General Howard are all opposed to it, as a breach of faith and an arbitrary, cruel, and unnecessary measure.

Still, there may not exist sufficient grounds, in the President's mind, for a veto. We shall soon know.

Though there is no probability that the constitutional amendment depriving the late slaveholding States of thirty-five representatives, i. e., for the entire number of the freed people, will be ratified, yet it will be, for some years, a political issue before the country. Should it be ratified, it must be by a ready assent on the part of the South. If, withal, ratification were offered by the South on the condition of immediate restoration of their representation, it would puzzle the Radicals. Lawyers know, and some of the political wire workers are aware of the fact, that the amendment, if ratified, would not necessarily cut off a single representative of the whole number of thirty-five. The State Legislatures would pass laws which would be uniform in their application to all classes, and yet exclude the negroes from the right of suffrage.

Much apprehension is expressed in some of the Radical papers of an extensive and increasing reactionary spirit in some of the Southern States in regard to the Union. At the close of the war, the South was probably ready to accept peace and restoration of the Union, with entire cordiality; but, unfortunately, restoration is denied or delayed by a factious Congress.—The reactionary feeling of the South, whether it exists or not, is now urged by the Radicals as an argument in favor of their disunion policy and measures.

Senator Sumner fears treachery on the part of the Postmaster General. He denounces him for appointing rank rebels to office in the South and warns him not to do it again.

KAPPA.

SECRETARY SEWARD'S INTERVIEW WITH THE PRESIDENT OF THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC—WHY LIBERIA AND HAYTI WERE NOT HERETOFORE RECOGNIZED, &c.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.

It is ascertained that when Secretary Seward was at Dominica, on the 14th of January, he had an interview with President Baez and his Cabinet, during which he gave as a reason why Hayti and Liberia have not sooner been recognized as Republics by the United States, that the slaveholding power largely and long determined the policy of the country at home and abroad until 1861, when the power was for the first time effectually reversed, and its removal is now complete and radical. Although Mr. Seward could then say nothing officially, he expressed the belief that if Dominica should send a Minister here he would be received. Since his return Dominica has been recognized by this Government, and Gen. Cazeneau has been nominated as Minister to that Republic.

From Mexico.

REPORTED WITHDRAWAL OF THE FRENCH TROOPS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The Herald says: From the capital and Vera Cruz we have reports to the effect that arrangements are now being perfected for the withdrawal of the French, and that Maximilian has given his consent for their departure, if the United States will send him troops to replace; that he has expressed his willingness to abdicate in favor of Iturbide; that he will soon receive another million of dollars from France; and that he will certainly make a change in his cabinet soon.

The difficulty between the Pope and the Mexican clergy has been settled in favor of the latter, but that between Maximilian and the clergy, on account of church confiscations, continues.

About 30,000 stand of arms for the Imperialists, recently arrived at Vera Cruz from New York, but being condemned as unserviceable, they were sent back.

Important Statement from Gen. Sherman.

The question having been submitted to Gen. Sherman, says the Constitutionalist, as to what he meant by his military order turning over the lands in South Carolina to the negroes, he has stated to a committee of gentlemen from that State, and also to President Johnson, that it was only for temporary purposes, and was not intended to last longer than when peace was declared and the rebels laid down their arms, submitting to the laws of the United States.

IMMIGRATION.—Dispatches to the State Department indicate that the immigration from Europe to the United States will this year far exceed any previous one. All the German ports especially are filling up with persons desirous of securing a passage.

A TELLING FACT.—The Lynchburg News states that more than four millions of dollars of capital owned by citizens of Lynchburg have been invested out of Virginia in consequence of the usury laws. The owners could not afford to lend money at six per cent.

The war debt of New York is $111,000,000; of Pennsylvania, $54,000,000; New Jersey, $56,000,000. The aggregate war debt of all the Northern States is $500,000,000.

PROSPECTUS
COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly Literary Magazine.
There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.
The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.
All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST magazines of the country.
As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.
It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following
Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00
Ten copies for one year,	38 00.

☞ The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements, at moderate rates.
☞ Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.
☞ Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine. Address
DE LEON & CO.,
P. O. Box 266, Baltimore, Md.
Jan 16, 135, tf.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the
The North Carolina Presbyterian
will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January next.
Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains or expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.
With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless in the working out of her own destiny?
To arouse the church to the importance and necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim In this we need assistance. We are not, alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; by contributions from the r own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause, for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all we hope for on earth.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

THE firm heretofore known as that of Baker, Cowper & Co has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The duties devolving on one of the partners as Cashier of the Bank of Cape Fear, and the removal of the other to Norfolk (his residence before the war) for the purpose of practicing law, have caused this dissolution. The business will be continued by Mr. Pulaski Cowper and Mr James A. Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime,
OR WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.
We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufaced, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.
Messrs B H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:
"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E. F Coe's Super Phosphate of Lime for four years—It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.
"We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,
"R. H. ALLEN & CO.,
"No. 191 Water street, New York."

HAMPSHIRE COAL.

CARGO OF 275 TONS HAMPSHIRE COAL DAily expected from Baltimore.
This coal is bituminous, and perhaps the best coal known for steam purposes, whether for locomotives or steamboats. It is used almost exclusively by Northern railroad companies and the Cunard Steamers. It is also represented as the best blacksmith's coal in the country, and is very extensively used in iron works for forging, etc. It is soft and friable, the fine coal being as good for use as the lump.
The attention of railroad companies, iron works and machine shops, is particularly invited to the importance of a trial of this coal.
The undersigned having been appointed agent for the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, will be prepared to furnish any quantity required, at a reasonable price.
Orders respectfully solicited.

COPARTNERSHIP.

NEWBERN, N C, November 1st, 1865.
WE HAVE THIS DAY FORMED A COPARTnership under the name and style of Whitford, Dill & Co.,
for the transaction of a Shipping and General Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.
To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.
We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States, and for different ports in the West Indies Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.
☞ We will make liberal advances on consignments.
All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered.

Major V. C. Barringer's Letters.

The importance attached by the Radicals to the letters of this "North Carolina Lawyer," addressed recently by Major Barringer to a member of Congress from Pennsylvania, and published in the Washington Chronicle, and thence into other kindred sheets, both in this State and elsewhere, may be a sufficient excuse for a brief notice of them.

The subject matter of the letters has produced some surprise and regret among the friends of that gentleman, but will fail to exert any other influence; and the surprise even which they at first occasioned, must soon subside, when it is remembered how rapid have been the changes of political opinion, through which that gentleman has passed within the last five years.

Maj. Barringer is a man of parts—a clear and strong writer—a bold thinker, and a man who enjoys most respectable connections and position. His temperament is sanguine, impulsive and fitful, by no means corresponding with the characteristics of his own State, or with the staid, sober developments of a highly respectable lineage.

He entered political life as a Whig, a conservative of the Henry Clay school, ardent, enthusiastic and a devoted friend of the Union. But in 1860 he caught the fire of Southern secessionism and as a member from that staid old Whig county, Cabarrus, in the Legislature of that year, was one of the foremost and most violent abettors of the secession movement.—Swinging loose from his moorings, no secession Democrat was more hostile to the Union and more bent upon resistance than he. From this period he parted with conservatism, and when the war bursted upon us, was one of the earliest for the fight. His military career was neither attractive nor brilliant, but he remained a warm advocate and promoter of the war to the last.

During this entire period, none excelled Maj. Barringer in his ultra pro-slavery views. He verily believed it was an institution of God which He designed to perpetuate, and thought it sacrilege not only for Northern abolitionists to seek its extermination, but for Southern christians to seek its amelioration. Pending the war, a very strong feeling sprung up among Southern christians, in reference to the religious training of the blacks, and the modification of the State laws in regard to their being taught to read the Book of God and brought under legal restraint upon the subject of marriage.

We believe the Presbyterian Synod of this State heartily sympathised with that movement, and if we mistake not, adopted some incipient measures looking to that object. We recollect soon after, the appearance of several strong papers in the Fayetteville Presbyterian, entering a most earnest protest against that movement. Those papers had their influence, though strongly condemned by many of the pious portion of the Church. The authorship of those papers was attributed to Maj. Barringer, and he has quietly borne their paternity for nearly or quite three years.

The war went on to its close, and Major Barringer returned to his home at Concord, one of the most throughly whipped men in the State. He was whipped all over, inside and out, and at once become the patron and admirer of the ultra radicals of the North—they whom his soul had abhored with bitter loathing, so short a period before. The first intimation we had of the remarkable summersault he had thrown, was contained in the articles from his pen, published in this journal not many weeks after its first issue, in favor of negro suffrage.

But the press of this State, even those in the interest of the "straitest sect" were not sufficiently "harmonized," not thorough enough, nor half enough enthused with the now great leading idea of the Major's mind, negro equality.—He must get the food to nurture it from the fountain head—the essence, the unadulterated juice from the wine-press of Sumner and Wilson and Stevens and Forney, and hence, these letters to his unknown friend, a member of Congress from Pennsylvania.

In the foregoing statements, we have relied for the facts given, to our memory alone. It is possible we may have unwittingly erred in some minute particulars. If so, we beg pardon of Maj. Barringer. We have too much self respect to state an untruth, and too high a regard for him personally, designedly to misrepresent him. If any think we have been too severe, our answer is, that the occasion called for plainness of speech.

But to the letters. Maj. B. finds fault with his State and section for a breach of faith to the government, in that they surrendered with the profession of good faith upon their lips, but have failed to comply with their obligations.—Upon this point we must take direct issue with the Major. The army of Gen. Johnson surrendered without conditions as did the entire Southern forces after him. The entire South accepted whatever terms the conqueror might impose and threw itself upon his magnanimity. President Johnson as the Executive chief both of the military and civil authority of the government, promulgated the terms, and the South with alacrity embraced them and went to work to fulfil them. He required the laying down of arms and the recognition of the authority of the United States. He demanded of the States and people, the obliteration of all record of the right and the fact of secession, and an acknowledgment of its failure and error. The abolition of slavery entire, and the treatment of the colored race as freemen. The repudiation of the entire debt contracted in support of the revolution, and the ratification of the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. So far as the public is informed this is the extent of the terms demanded by the conqueror. The protection of the lives and property of the freedmen and other guarantees necessary for the security of their liberty, are by consequence necessary appendages to the abolition of slavery. We believe the privilege of testifying in courts of justice in all matters where they are interested, will be found to be a necessary adjunct to their rights, and so far as we are concerned, we are ready to grant it to them. We are also of opinion that President Johnson regards this as necessary, but he has no where announced it as a condition of restoration. The right of suffrage to the blacks is an after-thought—a plea set up by the Radicals as a means of further agitation and as an instrument of degradation to the South, and one which Maj. Barringer is ready to concede himself; and because he yields it, would have the South kept out in the cold until it does!

Now we ask in what particular has the South—has North Carolina failed to comply in good faith with the terms of surrender? In what has she been slow or derelict? We challenge Major B. to show. Yet he counsels the Radicals to keep us out, until our prejudices are cured and our refractory spirit subdued! And such counsel from a North Carolinian—a leader in the revolution and an aider and abetter of secession!

But the Major has by the force of his analytical powers discovered the true secret of the wide chasm between the North and South. It is this: "The Northern mind is national.—The Southern mind is sectional. That is the sum total on both sides of the account." Why did not Major Barringer discover this before he was so severely whipped into it? His conclusion is a begging of the question—one not supported by facts. There was no aversion in the Southern mind to nationality, until the sectional action both legislative and commercial of the North, forced a similar feeling upon the South in self-defence. The Republican party it is true seeks to nationalize itself, but it is by the utter prostration of the South at its feet, regardless of the letter and spirit of the Constitution. This remark we apply only to the radical wing of that party, recognising in the conservative portion of that party, supporters of President Johnson, the elements of a National party with which [illegible] in union.

The sectionalism of the South, was a force put under the circumstances, as a means of self-preservation. It was an error, a radical one, as results have shown, but it was one for which the North was responsible. And does not Maj. B. see, that the proposed policy of the Radical Republicans, is forcing the South to a similar course? Let the North but trust the South to manage her own concerns, to do justice and right to the colored race—let it help her by encouraging tokens of brotherhood and fellow feeling, and does not even Maj. Barringer believe the South will come right the sooner?—Does he not see, that the very policy now practised by the radical party, is precisely the course to alienate and sectionalize the South? Most assuredly.

And is it remarkable, that the South with the kind and conciliatory teachings of the Northern Democrats contrasted with the bitter, alienating policy of the Radicals before her, should prefer Northern Democracy to Northern Radicalism? President Johnson and the conservative portion of both of those parties occupy the happy medium between the two, upon which to build a nationalism which must be permanent and enduring. Give the South proof of the real friendship of the North. Let the South be assured of the good intentions of the North, proven by unmistakable acts, and no questions of national finance or of real personal right to the negro, can separate them. The South desires a Union sincerely, but she wants one based upon equality, fraternity and liberty. No other Union can cure the spirit of sectionalism and spread the savor of a sound nationalism over the entire Republic.

But, after all, Mr. Seward's policy is the beau ideal—the quintessence of all that is great and glorious in the Republic, in the estimation of Major Barringer.

"The establishment of the perfect equality of men of the African race, with men of other races throughout the whole continent, is a policy which the United States may hereafter be expected to cultivate with constancy and assiduity."

Maj. B. readily yields to this as a national programme, but complains that it finds no general sympathy in the South, although Mr. Calhoun predicted, that when the South conceded emancipation, it must concede also the equality of the races. Mr. Calhoun, of course, looked to ultimate consequences, and not like Maj. Barringer, jumped to it and hugged it to his bosom as a Delilah. Mr. Calhoun viewed it as a bitter pill—one to which we might come to take with some grace by slow processes, but the fervid spirit of Maj. Barringer embraced it in advance of all others, and rolls it as a sweet morsel under his tongue. And to force this sweet morsel of negro equality—nay perfect equality upon the South, he counsels the Republican party to hang together with the President. But forced to admit its difficulty, plaintively asks, "Give us time." Alas! alas! the wonderful elasticity of the human intellect and the human affections. The proud Anglo-Saxon in affectionate embrace with the black, fetid Ethiopian!

The committee are of opinion that all or nearly all of the corporations, as such, have ceased to exist, as a legal consequence of the revolution.

The report acknowledges the South a conquered province, without terms—a theory accepted by the people; that President Johnson is the commander-in-chief of the armies; that he had refused to accept terms offered by Gen. Sherman to recognize the government of North Carolina; that he had by telegram dictated the action of the legislative bodies of the State; that he had caused to be convened the Convention contrary to the consitution of North Carolina, &c., &c.—Reporter of the Progress, Feb. 5th.

We learn that our brief notice on yesterday of the report of the Committee, introduced by Mr. A. J. Jones of the Senate, was construed into a personal attack upon the Senator from Columbus.

Our only business was with the report, and our only information as to its contents, was taken from the above extract from the reporter of the Progress. Our own reporter made no report upon its contents because of its length, but simply remarked, that the report was spoken of as extraordinary. Viewing it in that light, and supposing that the above extract gave a correct idea of its contents, we felt it to be a public duty to express our dissent from the views their p esented, without any knowledge as to its authorship, and irrespective of those who favored such views.

We are glad to learn from Mr. Jones, that the extract above gives no proper idea of its contents, and from the account he gave us of it, it is possible we shall, when we read it, modify our views in regard to it.

The Usury Laws.

The bill of Mr. Jenkins was defeated again on yesterday in the House. We seriously doubt the policy of the House on the bill. We have however avoided pressing our own views upon this and other measures, for the reason that we do not desire to control public sentiment upon this or any other measure.

To the question what are we to do, under the excessive scarcity of money which is now being felt intensely all over the State? Why, it is said, we must content ourselves with little and work out by hard knocks. But when one has nothing to work with and no means of getting it, what will be the avail of his knocks? How are the taxes to the Federal government to be paid, nearly or quite $1,000,000? How is any portion of the individual debts of the people to be paid? How are the State taxes to be raised? There is not money enough in circulation in the State to pay even the Federal taxes. Nor will money come into the State if only 6 per cent. interest can be paid. The people might get along with a system of barter among themselves if there were no taxes to be paid, but how, with the present pressure upon us?

Public Librarian.

We observe that the Field and Fireside of this city, urges the increase of the salary of the Public Librarian. We are surprised that this office, a very responsible and important one, should so long have been set down at so meagre a sum. The salary should be largely increased. The duties of this office, which the present incumbent so worthily fills, are far more important and onerous than many suppose, and we hope the present Legislature will do justice to it.

The Vote on the Usury Law.

The vote as given by our reporter on the bill of Mr. Jenkins on Monday last, seems not to be understood by some. The question being, shall the bill pass, those who voted in the affirmative are given as voting Nay, and those who voted in the negative are given as voting Yea. It should have been the reverse.

The Stay Law.

The bill introduced by Mr. Joyner, of Halifax, to consolidate the acts relating to Courts, is designed to repeal the stay law in existence and to provide one less objectionable. The bill before us, and which appears in to-day's issue, is carefully drawn up, and may possibly obviate some of the objections which lie against the one now in force.

University Trustees.

The vote for two additional Trustees for the University on yesterday, resulted in the election of one only, Mr. W. A. Jenkins, of Warren. If such elections are designed as compliments, this as well as the rest, was well merited.

Chapel Hill Mail Again.

We are pleased to state that since the Special Agent, Mr. Vassal, determined to stop the mail matter for Chapel Hill at Hillsboro', the Postmaster at Chapel Hill has made an arrangement by which it will be stopped at Durham's as heretofore.

North Carolina Guardian.

We have received the first No. of this sprightly daily, published at Charlotte by J. E. Britton, Esq. It will be issued daily and tri-weekly. We wish it much success.

Wilmington Journal Weekly.

We are requested to say that the weekly paper of the Journal will be issued during the present week.

SMOKING TOBACCO.—We acknowledge our indebtedness to our friend D. W. Courts, Esq., of Rockingham, for a box of nice smoking tobacco. We'll puff and puff, and think of auld lang syne.

The remains of Lieut. Col. Wm. M. Parsely, late of the 3rd Regiment N. C. Infantry, who was killed on the 6th day of April, 1865, on the retreat from Petersburg to Appomattox Court House, arrived at this place on Saturday last, and were conveyed to their final resting place in Oakdale Cemetery yesterday (Sunday) after noon.—Wilmington Journal.

General Forrest has left the country, and it is supposed has gone to Mexico, in consequence of having heard, on what was supposed to be trustworthy authority, that Secretary Stanton has issued an order for his arrest and deportation to Washington for trial by a military court.

The bill, to extend the time for registration of deeds and other conveyances, passed its third reading.

The resolution, to legalize certain acts of the provisional Justices of the Peace of Randolph county, came up on its third reading, and, on motion of Mr. Wilson, was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Leach suggested the names of A. G. Thornton and J. R. Lee as magistrates for the county of Cumberland, with a memorial from the citizens askin the same to be done. Mr. McLean wished it to be understood that, while he did not recede from the position he assumed a few days ago, he now interposed no further opposition to their appointment. On motion of Mr. Ferebee, the petition was read together with the names thereto. The nominations were confirmed.

Mr. Bogle introduced additional names for the county of Alexander. Concurred in.

Mr. Eure additional names for the county of Gates. Concurred in.

The bill to regulate the terms of the Supreme Court, and for other purposes, came up on its second reading and referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

Bill to prevent a discontinuance of causes in certain courts, on its second reading, was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

Bill to amend 12th sec. 10th chap. of Revised Code to repeal an act of 1861, was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

Bill relating to constables and other officers on its second reading on motion of Mr. Cash the rules were suspended and the bill passed its final reading.

Bill in relation to bonds on marriage license, (the bill repeals that portion of the law requiring persons who apply for license to get married to give bond,) on its third reading, was rejected.

The bill providing for the payment of interest on State bonds now due, by Mr. Berry, being the special order for 12 o'clock, came up on its second reading. [The bill provides for the issue of State Treasury notes in payment of coupons.] Mr. Berry supported the bill and urged its passage strongly. Mr. Wilson followed in opposition. Mr. Howard replied and was followed by Mr. Morehead. Pending the debate, a message was received from the House proposing to go forthwith into the election of two Trustees, and the Senate proceeded to vote.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Tuesday, Feb. 6th.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Garland introduced "a bill to alter the county lines between the counties of Yancey and Mitchell." Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Hoke, "a bill for the relief of R. B. Paschal, late Sheriff of Chatham county." Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Hutchison, a bill to incorporate the Rudisill Gold Mining Company, in Mecklenburg county. Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. Bryson, a bill to authorize the election of a tax collector for the county of Jackson. Referred to the committee on the judiciary. Mr. Chadwick, a memorial from citizens of Craven and Beaufort counties, praying the creation of a new county from portions of three respective counties. Referred to the committee on propositions and grievances.

ON CALENDAR.

The resolution restricting debate, introduced by Mr. Hodnett on yesterday, was rejected—not receiving a two thirds vote.

A bill to give further security to a widow for her year's provision, passed its second reading. On motion of Mr. Ashworth, the rules were suspended, and the bill, after further discussion, passed its final reading.

SPECIAL ORDER.

At 11 o'clock the House proceeded to reconsider the bill to amend the 114th chapter, Revised Code, in relation to usury.

Mr. Waugh moved to amend the bill by striking out, wherever it occurs, the word ten as the maximum rate of interest to be legalized as between parties making special contracts for loans, and inserting seven instead.

Mr. Cameron opposed the amendment. It was obvious to every one upon reflection, that money should be put upon the same footing as other commodities, and its price regulated by the law of supply and demand. Money, when plenty, could always be had at moderate rates. Under the existing Usury laws, unlawful interest had been exacted in many instances. They had brought into being, in most communities, note-shavers, wolfish creatures, who went round to the different courts with the stealthy tread of a cat, exacting usurious interest for loans, and pressing their nefarious claims to the earliest possible collection.

Mr. Burton, for the same reasons given on yesterday, was still opposed to the passage of the bill; it would have the affect of raising the rate of interest on the debt now existing in the State, and would only aid the trading and speculating portion of the community, the masses not desiring to borrow at a higher rate of interest than is now allowed by law, and gave as a case in point, that if a merchant could be allowed to borrow money at 10 per cent., and should do so, the consequence would be that he would at once turn on his debtors, have his bonds renewed, and incorporate in them the like rate of interest which they might be forced to do rather than be sued; and so in the case of all other debts now in existance. In times of ease he would not be opposed to the bill, but thought it would be exceedingly oppressive to the debtor at this time.

Mr. Caldwell opposed the bill. He believed its passage would prove detrimental to the best interests of the State. It would lead to no permanent investment of capital brought from abroad. The subsequent withdrawal of such capital, borrowed at such rates would still further impoverish our people.

Mr. Dargan again addressed the House in favor of the bill, and opposing the amendment.

Mr. Waugh moved that the bill be laid on the table, and on his motion, the yeas and nays were ordered.

The House refused to lay on the table as follows:

AYES—Messrs. Ashworth, Blair, Burgess, Burton, Caldwell, Craige, Dalby, Davis, of Carteret, Furr, Henry, Hodnett, Holderby, Hoke, Horton, Houston, Hutchison, Kinney, Matthews, McDonald, McGuire, McIntosh, McKay, McNair, Melson, Moore, of Chatham, Murrill, Niven, Nicks, Newsum, Palmer, Paschall, Potter, Smith, of Guilford, Smith, of Hertford, Scoggin, Teague, Trull, Waugh and York—40.

NAYS—Messrs. Arrington, Baxter, Beasley, Black, Bonner, Bryson, Cameron, Candler, Carson, Chadwick, Cowan, Cox, Crawford, Dargan, Dickey, Everett, Faircloth, of Green, Faircloth, of Wayne, Farrow, Faison, Gaines, Garland, Gidney, Hamilton, Harper, Harrison, Hawes, Hyman, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jenkins, of Warren, Jones, Joyner, Judkins, Kenan, Lee, of Gates, Leigh, of Tyrrell, Logan, Duke, Manly, Marler, McAden, McEachen, Moore, of Alamance, Moore, of Martin, Murphy, Rosebro, Russell, Shaw, Smith, of Columbus, Smith of Cumberland, Thigpen, Webb, Wheeler, Williams and Wilson—55.

The question recurring, Messrs. Smith of Hertford, Burton and Dalby opposed the bill.

Mr. McDonald said he was opposed to raising the rates of interest one mill.

Messrs. Jenkins of Warren, and Everett addressed the House in its support.

Mr. Wheeler moved to amend the bill by striking out the words "ten per cent." and inserting "eight." Not agreed to.

The question recurring on the passage of the bill it was again rejected by the following vote:

YEAS.—Arrington, Beasly, Cameron, Candler, Carson, Chadwick, Cowan, Cox, Crawford, Dargan, Dickey, Everett, Faircloth, of Green Faircloth, of Wayne, Faison, Gaines, Garland, Harper, Harrison, Hawes, Hyman, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jenkins of Warren, Joyner, Judkins, Kenan, Lee, of Gates, Luke, Manly, Marler, McEachen, McIntosh, Moore of Martin, Murphy, Newsum, Rosebro, Russel Shaw, Smith, of Columbus, Smith of Cumberland, Thigpen, Webb.—Yeas 43.

NAYS.—Ashworth, Blair, Blythe, Bonner, Bryson, Burgess, Burton, Caldwell, Coats Craige, Dalby, Davis, of Carteret, Farrow, Ferrell, Flythe, Furr, Gidney, Hamilton, Henry, Hodnett, Holderby, Hoke Horton, Houston, Hutchison, Jones, Kenney, Leigh of Tyrrell, Logan, McDonald McGuire, McKay, McNair Melson, Moore, of Alamance, Monit, of Chatham, Murrill, Niven, Nicks, Palmer, Paschall, Potter, Rayner, Smith, of Guilford, Smith, of Hertford, Scoggin, Teague, Trull, Waugh, Wheeler, Wilson, York.—Nays 52.

Mr. Ferrell, (by leave) introduced a bill in favor of W. H. High, late Sheriff of Wake county.

An engrossed bill for the benefit of the Firemen of the town of Wilmington, passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

A bill to incorporate the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America—passed second reading.

On motion of Mr. Dargan, a message was sent to the Senate, proposing to elect forthwith two Trustees of the University.

The Senate, by message, announced concurrence, and the House having voted, adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

A VERITABLE FIGHT.—We noticed, a few days ago, the report of a skirmish that took place in the upper part of this county between a white man and some negroes, who were trying to rob him. We, on yesterday, learned the particulars of the case, which was related to us as follows: Ten negroes from the Staton farm, a few miles out of town, with Frank, a man who formerly belonged to Mr. Nathaniel Street, of this county, as their leader, went to the House of a Mr. Hezekiah Davis, on Core creek, and while attempting to enter his premises, Mr Davis killed the leader and two others out-right and wounded the fourth.

This furnishes rather a bad introduction to negro proprietorship. This farm, it will be remembered, is rented to negroes, and having no stock or money with which to buy, they depend upon stealing from their neighbors to supply the deficiency. Mr. Davis served them exactly right, and if a few more instances of the kind could happen, they would learn a valuable lesson.—Newbern Times.

Henry W. Hilliard, ex-member of Congress from Alabama, now practicing law at Augusta, delivered an argument before the Supreme Court of Georgia, on the 22d, against the constitutionality of the act of Congress providing for the issue of Treasury notes and making them a legal tender.

The Cure is Thorough.

Kenneth Haynes, Esq. Clerk of Columbus County Court, writes [April 2, 1863:] "During the latter part of the year 1862 I was severely afflicted with diseased liver, and many nights while in bed the pain would become so excruciating that I was compelled to get out of the bed and sit up until the pain would subside. I procured a few boxes of the Southern Hepatic Pills, and the first dose gave me great relief. I continued to use the Pills for two weeks, and have not suffered from liver disease since. I have recommended them accordingly, and several persons are in want of them."

DAILY SENTINEL.

Wednesday, February 7, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—Messrs. B. P. Williamson & Co., have formed a new firm, revived the Foundry and Brass Works, and offer many valuable things for sale.

Mr. McMahon, of Halifax, offers a fine lot of corn, steam boat, &c.

The African Twins now on exhibition at the Exchange Hotel, in this city, were born in Anson county, in this State, the slave property of J. P. Smith, deceased, and are being educated by his widow, who has taken special care of them.

Carolina Female College opened its exercises on the 22d ult., under the Presidency of Prof. Blankenship. The College is located in Anson.

Rev. H. C. Parsons of the South Carolina Conference, died at his residence in Wadesboro' on the 29th ult. The Argus speaks of him as one of the best and most gifted of that community.

Miss. Maggie White, daughter of Col. Joseph White, of Anson, on the 28th. inst., was thrown from her horse while returning home from Church, and killed almost instantly.

For the Sentinel

MESSRS EDITORS.—"D. M. M." in the Standard of this morning has fallen into two clear inadvertancies.

1. No marriage between slaves, with whatever forms celebrated, was only voidable, they were at law all and equally void. The point made was that slaves could make no contracts, and that was just as true as to contracts made under one form as under another. No increase of solemnity in the form, could at all compensate the incapacity of the parties. Such is the course of decision in this State.*

2. He cites the constitutional provision as to legitimation by act of Assembly, with an omission of the words which constitute the real gist of the provision. The General Assembly is not prohibited from passing acts of legitimation,—but from passing private acts of that class. The clause is, "The General Assembly shall not have power to pass any private laws to alter the name of any person, or to legitimate any persons not born in lawful wedlock, and to restore to the rights of citizenship any persons convicted of an infamous crime; but shall have power to pass general laws regulating the same." Any law affecting all the persons of a particular class in the community, is a general or public law. It is so treated in the code pending before the Legislature. Legitimation is provided in that code for the children of slaves, married with certain forms—one class of slaves. The only question is, whether it may be provided for in other class.

That depends entirely upon policy. The power of the General Assembly, over the issue of one class of void marriages, is as great as its power over the issue of another class of void marriages. Some question may be made in point of policy, although I have not heard that question suggested.

Honor to Whom Due.

HILLIARDSTON, N. C. Jan. 31, 1866.

Messrs. Editors:—In one of your recent issues you published a highly meritorious poetical effusion, entitled. "The Snow," together with some prefatory remarks to the same, copied from the New York News, in which the editor claims the poem as the production of an author in that City.

Justice to the memory of the lamented dead as well as to the literary reputation of a gifted young Southerner, prompts me to ask, at your hands a correction of the error into which the News has fallen, and to which you have, unwittingly, given circulation. The author's real name is Faxon; his Christian name Henry W I think. He was a Tennesseean by birth, and education; but at the time of his death, which occurred a few years ago, he was connected with a village newspaper in the State of New York. He was a young man of extraordinary vigor of intellect, brilliant imagination and fine literary taste; but possessing a frail and delicate physical organization, in his too eager pursuit after fame he over taxed his energies, and fell an early victim to the insatiate Archer, Death. His melancholy fate bears a striking resemblance to that of the young and gifted Henry Kirke White, whose untimely fall has been so beautifully and touchingly immortalized:

"So the struck eagle, stretched upon the plain,
No more through rolling clouds to soar again,
Views his own feather in the fatal dart
That wing'd the shaft that quiver'd in his heart;
Keen were his pangs, but keener far to feel
He nurs'd the pinion that impell'd the steel,
While the same plumage that had warm'd his nest
Drank the last life-drop of his bleeding breast!"

Besides the "beautiful waif" so highly complimented by the N. Y. News, Mr. Faxon has left several other poetical gems of rare merit, which deserve to be rescued from oblivion.—They are characterized by a like faultless rythm, gushing melody, and genuine emotion. In smoothness of numbers, tender pathos, beauty of imagery, and bright flashes of poetic inspiration, Mr. Faxon's poems forcibly remind us of Edgar Allen Poe; and had his life been spared, he must eventually have taken rank among the very first of American poets. He has a brother living, (Jno. W. Faxon, of Tennessee,) who is a young author of decided promise, being endowed with a vivid fancy and an exquisite taste.

Will the "News," which has heretofore shown so much readiness to do entire justice to the South, make the amende honorable?

S. T. W.

CONDITION OF AFFAIRS IN TENNESSEE.—Judge Patterson, Senator elect from Tennessee, was before the Reconstruction Committee to-day, but was not examined at much length. In reply to questions on different subjects, he replied that in East Tennessee the people needed no Freedmen's Bureau. The negroes there were treated with great humanity by their masters before the war, and he doubted not would be in their new relations. He said: "All the people of Tennessee need is liberty to protect themselves—they are in no danger from rebels." In deference to the apprehensions of a portion of the people, he would not recommend the immediate withdrawal of all government troops from the State, but he nevertheless believed it might be done with perfect safety.—Washington Correspondent N. Y. Herald.

SENATE.—Mr. Willey's resolution which was adopted, instructing the committee on the Judiciary to report a bill for the payment of loyal citizens of the late rebellious States, for Quarter-master's Stores taken from them for the use of the United States Army.

Mr. Sumner resumed the floor in continuation of his argument of yesterday, and spoke at great length. He said the principles he contended for in despite of timid and perverse counsel would triumph and prevail.

HOUSE, resumed the consideration of the Freedmen's bill. On the first amendment, that none of its provisions should extend or be in force in Kentucky was rejected. The substitute for the bill proposed by Stevens, which among other things, that occupants of lands held under Sherman's field order are confirmed in their possession, and that no person shall be ousted therefrom unless settlement shall be made with said occupants, by former owners, was rejected. The bill passed by a vote of 136 to 33.

Stay Law.

The following bill offered by Mr. Joyner, of Halifax, has been printed, and will come up for discussion in a few days:

AN ACT TO CONSOLIDATE THE ACTS RELATING TO COURTS, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That terms of the courts of pleas and quarter sessions, and of the superior courts of law and equity, shall be held in each county on the days, for the periods of time, and under the like rules and regulations, except as herein otherwise provided for, which are specified and set forth in the 31st chapter of the Revised Code.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That terms of the courts aforesaid, shall be held in the new counties, formed and established since the enactment of the said 31st chapter of the Revised Code, on the days, for the periods of time, and under the like rules and regulations, except as herein otherwise provided for, which are specified and set forth in the various acts providing for the formation and establishment of the said new counties.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the several Superior courts of law shall have exclusive original jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all causes of a civil nature which may require the intervention of a jury: Provided, however, that the county courts shall have jurisdiction to try all cases of contested wills.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That the several superior courts of law and equity, which shall be held in each county next after the first day of January, in each and every year, shall, on the law side thereof, have cognizance only of actions of tort, and of crimes and misdemeanors, and, on the chancery side thereof, shall have cognizance only of bills of injunction and sequestration, petitions for the sale of lands, and of all matters between guardian and ward, and relating to the estates of orphans.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That the several superior courts of law and equity, which shall be held in each county next after the 1st day of August, in each and every year, in addition to jurisdiction over the matters specified in the fourth section of this act, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all actions of debt, assumpsit, or account, and of all other matters not enumerated and set forth in the said fourth section.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That in all matters of which the superior courts of law and equity, which shall be held in each county next after the first day of January, in each and every year, shall have cognizance according to the provisions of this act, the rules of practice, pleas and process, and the rules of proceeding in equity, shall be the same, in all respects, as are specified and set forth in chapters thirty-one and thirty-two of the Revised Code.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That in all actions and suits of which the superior courts of law and equity, which shall be held next after the first day of August in each and every year, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction, the defendant shall have twelve months from the return term to plead, answer or demur thereto; and no judgment shall be rendered in any of such actions or suits, whether in law or equity, without the consent of the defendant or defendants, until that term of the succeeding court which shall be held twelve months from the time of issue joined. And all executions which shall be issued on judgments rendered on any of the actions or suits, specified in this section, shall be made returnable to that term of the succeeding court which shall be held twelve months from the date thereof, and the officer to whom such executions may be directed, shall enclose a levy on the property of the defendant or defendants sufficient to satisfy the same, and shall, in said endorsement fully specify and set forth the property so levied on, and shall make no sale thereof, but shall allow the same to remain in the possession of the defendant or defendants. At the return term of said execution it shall be the duty of the Clerk to issue a writ of venditioni exponas for the sale of said property, with an alias writ of fieri facias, should the plaintiff so desire, which writ shall be made returnable to that term of the succeeding court which shall be held twelve months from the test thereof: Provided, however, That the levy in this section directed to be made, shall throw no responsibility on the sheriff as to the safe keeping of the property which may be therein specified, but the same shall be a lien thereon from the list of the execution.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That the plaintiff in all actions upon bills, bonds, promissory notes, open accounts, and all actions of debt whatsoever, at the term of the court when issue shall be joined, as directed in section seventh of this act, shall have judgment for so much interest then accrued as he may be able to prove that he is entitled to, and shall have execution thereof returnable to the next succeeding term court; and shall, in like manner, have judgment and execution for the interest which may there after accrue at each annual succeeding term of said court until final judgment is rendered.

SEC. 9. Be it further edacted, That all actions which were pending in the Courts of this State, on the 26th day of April, A. D., 1865, shall not be regarded as discontinued, but shall have the place on the various dockets which they held on said day, and shall be further proceeded with according to the orders which the various courts may make in each case.

SEC. 10. Be it further enacted, That there shall be two terms of the Supreme Court held in the city of Raleigh, in each and every year, to-wit: one term on the second Monday in June, and one on the 30th day of December, or on the day thereafter, in case the said thirtieth day should be Sunday, and no term of said court shall be held elsewhere.

SEC. 11. Be it further enacted, That all civil warrants which shall be hereafter issued by justices of the peace, shall be made returnable six months from the test of the same, and upon the trial of such warrant either party may appeal without security to the next succeeding fall term of the superior court of the county where the warrant is had, when the defendant shall enter his plea and the case shall thereafter be governed by the provisions of this act; Provided, however, that all executions issued by a justice of the peace shall be made returnable twelve months from the test thereof.

SEC. 12. Be it further enacted, That the provisions of this act shall not be construed to apply to cases of attachment, but the same shall be governed by the provisions of chapter seventh of the Revised Code: Provided, however, that should the defendant in attachment appear and give bail, the case shall the cafter be governed by the provisions of this act.

SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, That sections seventh, eigth and twelfth, of an act ratified the 11th day of September, A. D., 1861, entitled "An act to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein," be, and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 14. Be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws conflicting with the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect and be in force from the day of its ratification.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow disease, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in dumbished doses the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other blended complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no other. The sick want the best cure there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by

NOTICE.

I SHALL offer for sale, at public auction, on Tuesday, 20th of February next, the farm on which I now reside, situated partly in Nash, and partly in Edgecombe Counties, N. C. This farm contains nine hundred and seventy-five acres, of which one-third is in a high state of cultivation and well adapted to the growth of cotton, corn and oats. The other portion is well timbered and peculiarly valuable on account of the growing demand for lumber in the vicinity.

I will sell, at the same time, my stock of all kinds, including Horses, Mules, Cows and Calves, Sheep, Sows and Pigs, and all of good breeds.

—ALSO—

five hundred barrels of Corn a large quantity of Fodder and Shucks, farming Utensils of all kinds, Wagons and Carts, a fine collection of Carpenters' Tools, and about twenty thousand pounds of Pork already killed and salted.

All this property will be sold under the hammer of Mr. J. J. Alston, well known as an accomplished auctioneer.

This property is peculiarly valuable, from the fact that it is within easy access of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road, being only three miles from one station and six from another. Location remarkably healthy.

Terms made known on day of sale.

DAILY SENTINEL

WM. R. PELL, Proprietor.

Going Home.

Where are you going so fast, old man,
Where are going so fast?
There's a valley to cross, and a river to ford,
There's a clasp of the hand, and a parting word,
And a tremulous sigh for the past, old man—
The beautiful vanished past.

The road has been rugged and rough, old man,
To your feet it's been rugged and rough;
But you see a dear being, with gentle eyes,
Who has shared in your labor and sacrifice;
Ah! that has been sunshine enough, old man,
For you or me, sunshine enough.

How long since you passed o'er the hill, old man,
Of life, o'er the top of the hill?
Were there beautiful valleys on t'other side—
Were there flowers, all trees, and branches wide,
To shut out the heat of the sun, old man,
The heat of the fervid sun?

And how did you cross the dark waves, old man,
Of sorrow—the fearful waves?
Did you lay your dear treasures by, one by one,
With an aching heart and "God's will be done,"
Under the wayside dust, old man,
In their graves 'neath the wayside dust?

There are sorrows and labors for all, old man,
Alas! there is sorrow for all;
And you, peradventure, have had your share,
For eighty long winters have whitened your hair
And have whitened your heart as well old man,
Thank God! your old heart as well.

You are now at the foot of the hill, old man,
At last at the foot of the hill;
The sun has gone down in a golden glow,
And the heavenly city lies just below;
Go in through the pearly gate, old man,
The beautiful pearly gate.

TAKE THESE.—Some twenty years ago a farmer's barn in the vicinity of Worcester was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Many of the citizens had gone to the fire, when a fop, well strapped and tickled, with his cap on one side of his head, met a celebrated doctor and accosted him this wise:

"Can you, ah, tell me, doctah, how far they have succeeded in extinguishing the conflagration of the, ah, unfortunate yeoman's barn."

The doctor, eyed the individual attentively, dropped his head as usual for a moment, and then slipping his thumb and fingers in his vest pocket, took out a couple of pills and handed them to him saying:

"Take these, sir, and go to bed; and if you do not feel any better in the morning, call at my office."

A fellow being awakened by the clerk of a steamer, was told that he must not occupy the berth with his boots. He very considerately replied: "Oh, the bugs won't hurt 'em I guess; they are an old pair."

The Principal of an Academy gave a pupil, who was an aspirant for the situation of school teacher, a certificate, which said: "This young man is capable of filling any position for which he is qualified."

A pair of sweet lips, a pleasure or two of delicate hands, and a pink waist ribbon, will do as much to unhinge a man as three fevers, the measles, a large size whooping cough, a pair of lock-jaws, several hydrophobias, and the doctor's bill.

BREAD.—"What is the chief use of bread?" asked an examiner at a recent school exhibition. "The chief use of bread," answered an urchin, apparently astonished at the simplicity of the inquiry, "is to spread butter and jam on it."

"SHEEP."—A Frenchman cannot pronounce ship. The word sounds "sheep" in his mouth. Seeing an iron-clad, he said to a boy: "Ish dish a war-sheep?" "No," answered the boy, "it's a ram."

Man has taught even the lightnings to forget their thunders and to whisper, as they flicker along the wires, the accents of his thought.

Josh Billings says: "When a man's dog deserts him on account of his poverty, he can't go any lower in this world—not by land."

The following is the conclusion of an epitaph on a tombstone in East Tennessee: "She lived in a life of virtue and died of the cholera morbus, caused by eating green fruit in the full hope of a blessed immortality, at the early age of 21 years, 7 months and 16 days. Reader, go thou and do likewise."

MAGNETIC.—Gentleman—"Is it possible to send a kiss to Brighton?" Clerkess—"Oh, yes, sir; but it must be repeated two or three times, to make it quite sure!"—Punch.

SOMETHING TO TAKE.—"Will you take something?" said a teetotaller to his friend, while standing near a tavern. "I don't care if I do," was the reply. "Well," said Frank, "let's take a walk."

CROSS EXAMINATION.—A young lady, who had been severely interrogated at court by an ill-tempered counsel, observed, on leaving the witness box that she never before fully understood what was meant by cross examination.

GOOD FREIGHT.—The British Barque Cumberland, consigned to Messrs. O. G. Parsley & Co., sailed from this port on Wednesday last, direct for Liverpool, with the following cargo: 141 bales cotton, 50 barrels spirits turpentine, 93 barrels pitch, 2,379 barrels rosin, 300 barrels tar, and 9 boxes tobacco. The freight on the above articles amounting to £950 sterling, or about $4,700 in gold.—Wil. Journal.

BEAUTIFUL THOUGHT.—A writer, whose life has passed its meridian, thus eloquently discourses upon the speedy flight of time:

"Forty years once seemed a long and weary pilgrimage to make. It now seems but a step; and yet along the way are broken shrine, where a thousand hopes wasted into ashes, footprints sacred under their drifting dust, green mounds where the grass is fresh with the watering of tears; shadows even in which we should not forget. We will garner the sunshine of those years, and with chastened steps and hope push on toward the twinkling where the waters are still, and the storms never beat."

AN IMPERTINENT BOY.—"Mister, how do you sell beef this morning?"

"Why, twenty-five cents a pound; how much will you have?"

"Twenty-five cents, eh? have you got a heart?"

"No, just sold it."

"Well, I just knowed that you couldn't have a heart and ax twenty-five cents a pound for beef. I'm sorry you sold it, cause I'd like to have some meat."

North Carolina Map for 1866.

THE subscriber has, after ten years of toil and experience, prepared this new and beautiful map from new engravings, with all the new Counties, Rail Roads, Post Offices, with hundreds of additions and corrections, State border views, likeness of President Jackson, Andrew Jackson, J. K. Polk, Gov. Swain Graham, Vance, &c., altogether presenting a superb Map, worthy of the State and a place in every household, vastly superior to any thing in size line finish and beauty.

This Map is entirely from new engravings, and is a great improvement on Cooke's & Pearce's old Map

Beware of Northern humbugs and impositions.

This Map is now ready for printing.

Agents wanted in all parts of the State.

Editors who will copy and notice this advertisement, will be entitled to a proof copy of the Map, by sending paper to me.

Price of the Map, 5 feet by 4, handsomely painted and printed in the best style at the low price of $5 per copy.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends. [illegible] case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8 819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527 805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,244 33.

In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

Store No. 20 South Delaware Avenue,

THIS valuable Manure has been before the agricultural public, under one name for twelve years past, and its character for vigor of action and permanence in effect is well established. Before the war, it was introduced, to some extent, in the Southern States, and was found to be highly adapted to Cotton, Tobacco, and all Crops.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

CIRCULAR.

TO THE PUBLIC:

The undersigned has now ready for the press a volume, the result of the incubrations of many years, entitled a 'Short Treatise on Chronology in General, and especially on Classical Chronology" The work is not intended to be a chronological chart, nor yet a collection of dates and synchronistic tables. The author's aim has been to produce a "Horn Book" of Chronology, containing the leading principles, laws and facts of that science.

THE FIRST part treats of measuring time and adjusting its various divisions; the SECOND of fixing dates of historical events and arranging them in order; and the THIRD, of miscellaneous matters important to the chronologist.

UNDER THE FIRST DIVISION are discussed the day, the week, the month, the year and certain cycles used in computing the civil calendar and preparing the Almanac; the origin, history, nature, character, and various sub-divisions of each, especially among the ancients.

UNDER THE SECOND DIVISION the methods of ascertaining the dates or the time when they occurred; the actual dates of some important eras whose epochs are disputed; the most important epochs and eras which have been employed at different times and by different nations, including those which are still in use; and the actual dates of the most prominent events in classical chronology.

UNDER THE THIRD AND LAST DIVISION are considered the epochs and eras of less importance; a sketch of the chronology of India and of China; the principles of the art of mnemotechyny as applied to dates, and the different systems of that art which have been propounded.

The author believes that a work successfully executed upon this plan, though it may not contain very much that is new, cannot but be useful and profitable, not only to the reading public, but also to the youth of our country, in the acquisition of classical and historical learning: and HISTORY will be THE STUDY of this age; it must always be the study of thoughtful men in times of revolution and great political changes, such as our country is at present undergoing.

The contributions of North Carolina, and of the Southern States of the Union generally, to American literature, have heretofore been few, and for the most part, worthless. A few works of fiction and some fugitive poems include our past efforts; and with the excellent Latin Grammar, and the edition of Cæsar's Commentaries, prepared for the press by Col. Bingham—works the very best of their character which have ever fallen under our observation, and which, under more favorable circumstances, will yet win for their author that high reputation in his profession which he merits—our contributions to USEFUL LITERATURE are of the very humblest character. Under such circumstances this book is, with some confidence, presented for public patronage.

The author proposes to publish by subscription. The cost of publication will be fifteen hundred dollars, or more. The book contains about two hundred and fifty 12 mo. pages. It will be brought out in the best style of one of our best American publishers, as to type, paper and binding. The cost of single copies delivered will be $2.50.

Persons desiring to subscribe can communicate with the undersigned at Raleigh, but subscript on lists will be opened at various places of business in Raleigh and other towns in the State. Subscriptions will be required in cash as essential to the success of the enterprise. Editors who will give this Circular a few insertions and forward a copy of their papers containing it to the author, will be furnished with a copy of the book.

The volume will be placed in the hands of the publisher as soon as the author's success is at all assured, and will be issued to subscribers a few weeks thereafter.

E. GRAHAM HAYWOOD.

Desirable Farm for Sale.

THE PLANTATION SITUATED ABOUT TWO and a half miles from the village of Magnolia on the Wilmington and Weldon R. R., between that place and Kenansville, and known as "Barbacue," is offered for sale. The tract contains 360 acres, 100 of which are cleared and have been under cultivation, producing excellent Corn, Wheat, potatoes, &c. A portion of the land is also well adapted to the culture of cotton. An inexhaustible bed of Marl, a large spring of as good water as can be found in the State, and a never failing stream, running through the center of the cleared land, are among the attractions of the place.

The timbered portion of the land being nearest the Rail Road, and the entire place being easy of access to a first rate market, make it a highly desirable location for growing produce, raising stock and selling timber. Any one having the cash, can procure a bargain by applying immediately to

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING.

THE UNDERSIGNED RESPECTFULLY ANnounce to the public that they have formed a copartnership for the purpose of carrying on the BOOK AND JOB PRINTING BUSINESS in all its branches.

Each member of the firm is a practical printer, and, with an experience of twenty years each, they confidently appeal to the people of their native State for a liberal share of patronage.

They have one of the Largest Printing Establishments
in the State, and execute their own work, which, for neatness and cheapness, cannot be excelled in the South.

The senior member of the firm has been for a number of years superintendent of the Printing Office of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind which has always sustained a high reputation for neat and tasty printing.

They are prepared to execute, at short notice,
